Not your Ordinary Newsletter. . . Not Your Ordinary Church

Happily reunited, Ben Hamin, shown here with his family, remembered Ben & Addi Pascal. Pastor Ben had visited and worked with this Guatemalan villager during a prior Agros trip five years ago.

Are you ready to journey with a village in Central America?

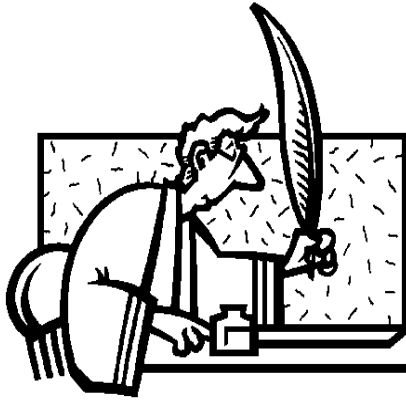

We are excited to announce that the PCJH Elders have approved a seven-year partnership with Agros International's "Journey with a Village" program! The Mission Committee and Vision Team would like to thank all of you for your prayers of discernment during this year-long process. We believe God will bless the village and PCJH as we join hands and journey together with Jesus.

What are the next steps?

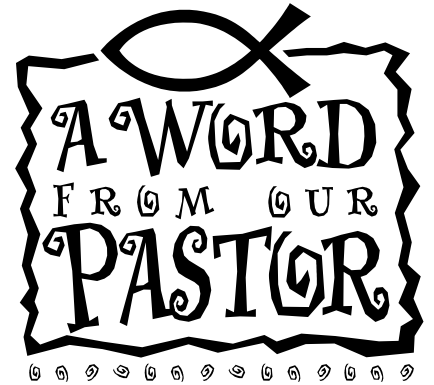

- ∞ We will work with Agros to identify and commit to a specific village in Central America.
- ∞ We will have a special ceremony at PCJH to mark the beginning of our relationship with this village.
- ∞ We will form a special committee who will oversee our relationship and activity with Agros. If you are interested in being a part of this committee, please contact Bob Kopp or Pastor Ben.
- ∞ We will begin planning our first service team trip for Spring 2012. All interested participants will need to fill out an application. We will also have partial scholarships available for those who need assistance.

If you are interested in learning more about how you can get involved with "Journey with a Village" please contact Bob Kopp (bkopp@waldenasset.com) or Pastor Ben (bpascal@pcjh.org).

To God be the Glory!

Paul's Page

Howdy Everyone.

I am thrilled to be writing to you all at the conclusion of what has been a magnificent fall. The colors have been incredible and have hung around far longer than usual. There have been a number of times I have pulled out my camera and taken pictures to remind me of the beauty during those less colorful months of winter.

November is Thanksgiving month. We have so much for which to be thankful. Our breath, our life, our community, the relative stability of our nation when so many nations have great instability, our medical availability, our family, friends, faith, and the list could go on. Making a gratitude list for all things great or small is a wonderful way to not forget the many blessings we have.

To this spirit and season of Thanksgiving I want to contrast the "Occupy Wall Street" movement. I am sure most if not all of you are aware of the protests that have gone on for more than a month and have now spread across the nation and to other parts of the world. These protests focus on policies, procedures, and bail-outs that hurt the common person and financial rewards for a few to the exclusion of people in need. These protests are attempting to confront moral and ethical wrongs that have injured many. Their true focus is greed: a spiritual disease that can be seen in the hearts of some with wealth; greed: a spiritual disease that is also rooted in the hearts of some of the 'less-rich' when they want more (especially taken from others so the 'less-rich' don't have to work for it).

I am reminded of what St. Paul wrote to his mentee Timothy about this matter. He said:

But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

1 Timothy 6:9-10

Greed, the consuming desire for more, can be the focus of those with substance and those who want more substance. In many ways I believe the "Occupy" movement has not gone far enough. I believe it should be expanded to include Hollywood where our movie tickets pay millions of dollars to actors and producers that often present an immoral message to the people of America as well as to our world; Professional athletes where top players are paid millions to swing a bat, throw a ball, shoot a basket, or fling a puck; I know the list could go on.

One of the signs that greed exists in our soul is when thanksgiving does not regularly flow from our heart. Thanksgiving should be a central characteristic of our faith. Jesus challenged his disciples to rejoice (be thankful) for the greater things. After they had returned from a very successful missionary venture where they had been the vessels to defeat the demonic in people, Jesus told them in Luke 10:20:

...do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you (the wrong focus, i.e., power, influence, etc.,... add your own descriptors - peh), but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.

St. Paul admonished those Christians in Thessalonica in this way (1 Thss. 5:16-18):

Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

I am convinced that the proper antidote for greed in our souls is not through the reducing or transferring of income. The antidote for greed is the development of an attitude of gratitude rooted in what God has done for us in Jesus Christ our Lord.

My prayer for us this month is that the God of grace will "Occupy" our hearts through the inner working of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

"Occupied" with you,

Pastor Paul

Dear PCJH Family,

Thanksgiving... it is not a religious holiday, but being thankful is at the heart of the Christian faith. We celebrate communion (or Eucharist) once a month. The Greek word for Eucharist means thanksgiving. May we all give thanks to our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ. He is the one who came to reconcile us back to God, to redeem that which has been lost, and to restore the brokenness of our world.

Rejoice in the Lord always, I will say it again: Rejoice! Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

~ Philippians 4:4,6-7

Great Lasagna Mission

As a way of expressing our thanks to God and blessing our community, we will be doing the Great Lasagna Mission again this year on Sunday night, November 13th from 5:30pm to 7:30pm. The purpose of the Great Lasagna Mission is to create an opportunity for families to serve our community together as a family unit and as a church. It is important for our children to see their parents serve and to serve as a family.

We will gather in the Fellowship Hall at 5:30pm and make as many lasagnas as possible (last year we made 73... let's see if we can beat that number this year!) Next, we will eat lasagna together around tables and enjoy fellowship and conversation with one another. Then, we will take lasagnas to people in our community who need some encouragement and love. We need as many people as possible to help with this service project (prepping, cooking, building and delivering lasagnas... and cleaning up). We also need names and addresses of people to deliver the lasagnas to.

Please contact our intern, Allison Stewart, if you are interested in helping with this great ministry opportunity (astewart@pcjh.org).

Safe Church Policy

It is important for our church to be a safe place where children, youth and families can gather to love God, grow to know and follow Jesus, and go out into the world to make a difference. I believe PCJH is a safe church.

However, there is a committee who is developing a more comprehensive policy in order to ensure that PCJH remains a safe place for our children, youth and families. It is widely known that crimes of abuse have occurred in churches across our country and world. It is an unfortunate reality of the world we live in.

At PCJH we take the safety of our children, youth and families seriously. We believe in providing a safe and nurturing environment for our children to know the love of God in Jesus Christ.

In order to ensure this, we have strengthened our current policy to include a more thorough screening process for all staff, elders, deacons, and volunteers who work directly with children and youth. We have also clearly defined basic guidelines and processes our church will abide by in order to ensure the safety of our kids. These are all things we have already been doing, but now they will be updated and strengthened in our new policy.

A new component to our Safe Church Policy will be required training and education for all staff, elders, deacons and CYF volunteers. We will officially implement this new policy in January 2012 upon the approval of Session.

As a parent of a young child, I am proud and thankful that our church takes the safety and well-being of our children so seriously. I believe Jesus would do the same.

Faithfully, ~Pastor Ben

What do we worry about?

An article written by Tina Gilbreath, the Children's Christian Education Specialist at the Valley Presbyterian Church in Paradise Valley, AZ

~As parents, we worry about how our kids are doing in school. We attend all the back to school curriculum nights, contribute to the PTA and more. We worry that they will be well rounded. So, we sign them up for different sports, clubs and after school activities. We worry that they will be healthy, so we spend time planning their meals, and encouraging them to eat healthy snacks. But do we worry about the most important thing? Are our children growing in a relationship with Jesus Christ? Before you start to feel guilty because you are not doing enough or are overwhelmed by the idea of needing to do something else, let me say if you are reading this you are on the right track because you are getting your family involved in a church community. But is that enough in today's world? Sunday School is only one hour a week. What about the other 167 hours in the week? Who is guiding your child to Christ then? You are your child's primary teacher. You may say, "I am not that confident in my knowledge of the Bible." I say teaching is one of the best ways to improve your understanding. You may say, "I don't have time." You don't need a lot of time, you just need to be intentional about the conversations you have. ~

Please let me know if you would like to get involved in your child's Christian education. We would love to have you join us in this important work of Partnering Home and Congregation! Cindy Zabriskie 739-9591 or czabriskie@pcjh.org

Thanksgiving Placemats

Soon we will be decorating and delivering placemats for the Thanksgiving Day Feast! This is the third year we have had kids around the community decorate and deliver placemats to: Meals on Wheels recipients, Pioneer Homestead Residents, The Living Center, River Rock, The Good Samaritan Mission, The Food Cupboard as well as The Teton Steakhouse. This is a great outreach of service to our community and this event brought great joy to those who received and gave placemats last year. We encourage parents to participate together with their children. We will be delivering the placemats beginning Nov. 16th.

Plan to start coloring the first week in November!!

The Great Lasagna Mission

5:30pm to 7:30pm

Join us on Sunday, Nov. 13th and bring your family or invite a friend! This is a popular community service opportunity to make and deliver lasagnas for someone in need. You will get to dine on a fine lasagna dinner together in fellowship with family and friends. This is a great chance to serve and go into the world to make a difference with your children! Please call Allison Stewart if you will be attending. We would like to collect names and addresses of people who would benefit from one of our specially prepared lasagnas!

Did You Know?

Between 30 and 50 students participate in Sunday School each week!

Little Lambs has been in operation for 5 years and has 53 students!!

30 students participate in Youth Group each week!

~ Give thanks with a grateful heart ~

God's Little Lambs

Seth and Merrick in front of a plane at Jackson Hole Aviation.

The Raptor Center was sooo neat! The people there were really nice and knew a lot about birds! Did you know they have a live owl there named Owly?!

Wow! We flew right through October learning about things that fly, nighttime noises and minding our manners. Our annual Little Lambs Pumpkin Party is sure to be fun too! Our month's bible verse is, "I am wonderfully made," Ps. 139:14. Our teachers have been teaching us how much God loves each and every one of us and that we are all made differently, but wonderfully! It's getting cold out and we experienced our first snow of the season! But, the snow didn't stop us from finding beautiful fall leaves and making place mats out of them! ~ Ms. Erin

Sacred Parenting Parenting

How Raising Children Shapes our Souls

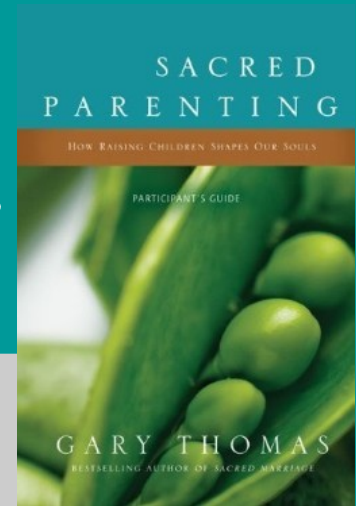

With Pastor Ben
Wednesdays at 5:15pm

Begins Oct. 26th

Sundays at 9:00am

Begins Oct. 30

“Parenting is a school for spiritual formation – and our children are our teachers.” Gary Thomas (same author of Sacred Marriage)

Join us for a 6 session video group study, facilitated by Pastor Ben, where author Gary Thomas shows how God can transform lessons in raising children into opportunities to grow in the image of Christ. This is not a “how to” class that teaches you ways to discipline your kids or help them achieve their full potential. Instead of discussing how parents can change their kids, Sacred Parenting turns the tables and demonstrates how God uses our kids to change us. It will help you and the group look at parenting from a different perspective.

This class is not only for parents, but also for grandparents and other parent-like figures.

Sacred Parenting will be offered on Wednesdays at 5:15pm (beginning Oct. 26th) and Sundays at 9:00am (beginning Oct. 30th). No classes will be held Thanksgiving week (Nov 23rd or 27th). There is a $10 fee for the participant guide, which will be provided at the class.

Please RSVP to Diane McGee dmcgee@pcjh.org

Second Thursdays Mission Meals

Each month, a team of dedicated volunteers prepare a meal for the approximately 25 to 30 people who are homeless and perhaps living at or visiting the Good Samaritan Mission on Pearl Street in Jackson. Volunteers commit to providing one of the following five foods: Main course, vegetable, starch, salad or dessert. They then deliver their prepared food to the GSM by 5 pm on the second Thursday of each month. Those who have the time are welcome to stay and help serve the meal. GSM staff and volunteers provide the clean up. This has been one of the quiet missions of PCJH for nearly a decade. To learn more, and to sign up to help, contact Susan Ordway at 739-2120 or at her e-mail address, theordsway02@gmail.com.

Live It Learn It

Cards are available at the welcome table outside the sanctuary. If you are still seeking a way to be involved in the life of the church, please fill one out and place it in the offering basket or in the church office. We will contact you in response to your expressed interest. Blessings, the PCJH staff and volunteer team leaders.

Every Sunday is Name Tag Sunday

The Congregational Life Team is interested in inviting everyone to wear a name tag. This important activity helps us become a more welcoming church, by helping our visitors get to know us by name, and so we will be better able to reach out to others who are new in the life of our congregation. If you are interested in learning more about our Ministry of Welcoming, contact Cindy Dahlin, cindydahlin@hotmail.com or Becky Kimmel, bkimmel@pcjh.org.

PCJH LIBRARY NEWS

Now that the weather is changing, you may have a little more spare time for reading!! The PCJH library will provide you with a variety of wonderful books, old and new. Please stop by and find a Christian novel, an inspirational book on prayer, or perhaps a bible study you can do at home or with a small group. Here are a few ideas for Fall reading/study:

- 1) A Deeper Joy: Add a New Dimension to Your Life - by Colleen T Evans - the author says about her book...."I chose to write about the Beatitudes because in these words Jesus was speaking to believers like me - they weren't very pious and they were far from perfect, but they had decided for Jesus. Now they needed His help in trying to live the life to which He had called them."
- 2) The Prodigal God: Recovering the Heart of the Christian Faith: by Timothy Keller - by the time this newsletter goes to press, Pen Pascal's Sunday School class on this book will be coming to a close. This book is a MUST READ if you missed Ben's class! The renowned NYC minister "uses one of the best known parables to reveal an unexpected message of hope and salvation....this book will challenge both the devout and the skeptic to see Christianity in a whole new way"!!!
- 3) Walking by Faith: Lessons Learned in the Dark: by Jennifer Rothschild - (Individual or group bible study - 6 weeks, includes DVDs). This study "contrasts the evidences of walking by faith and walking by sight and encourages us to take risks, give God control, persevere through hardships....."

STEWARDSHIP

ANNUAL PLEDGE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH

Sunday, November 13th will be our Annual Pledge Sunday. Each of us can participate with fellow worshippers to dedicate our combined pledges for God's work of ministry and mission through the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole in 2012.

The Annual Fund of the Church is used to pay for worship services, Christian education (children, youth and adults), mission outreach projects, staff salaries, building heating, lighting, cleaning and similar day-to-day costs.

Our collective pledges will be used by the Board of Elders, Finance Team and Stewardship Team to develop the PCJH budget for 2012. Understanding the level of financial commitment for the coming year is helpful to that planning process.

PCJH's overall mission is to "Pass on the Faith." To achieve that objective our Church offers a wide variety of ministry and mission (outreach) projects, such as three weekly worship services, community dinners on Wednesday evening, ongoing adult Bible studies, children's Sunday school, Little Lambs pre-school, Upward Basketball, Joy University in the summer, and the recently approved Agros International mission program to name but a few. Each of these high-impact programs change the lives of those that participate.

All members and friends of our congregation will soon receive a letter that includes a Pledge Card for our PCJH Annual Fund Campaign. Please read the letter, as well as the accompanying piece, "Frequently Asked Questions". Pray for guidance and then complete your pledge for 2012 using a percentage figure or a specific dollar amount.

If you are unable to pledge a percentage or specific dollar amount at this time, the Pledge Card also provides a space for you to indicate that fact and state that you will give as you are able.

Our goal this year is 100% participation by the congregation. We continue to be blessed by the gifts God has given us. We also know that the Scriptures call for each of us to return a portion of those gifts to support God's work. We ask that you please prayerfully consider what God is calling you to contribute to His work through the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole.

Please bring your completed Pledge Card with you to worship on Sunday, November 13th. If you cannot be present on the 13th, please mail your Pledge Card to the Church (P.O. Box 7530, Jackson, WY 83002) or drop it off at the Church office.

All submissions will be treated confidentially.

Article prepared by your PCJH Stewardship Team

Thank You PCJH !!

In these times of so much need, and so many places to think of when we consider sharing our talents and treasure, the Mission Team is so pleased to thank you all for your generous donations to the Special Peacemaking Offering received on October 10. Our total is $700.00. We are invited by PC (USA) to keep 25% of that total for use in our own communities; The Mission Team has decided to send the gift to "The Good Samaritan Mission".

One of four special annual offerings of The Presbyterian Church (USA), and received during World Communion Sunday, an additional 25% will be used to support Presbytery and Synod peacemaking, and 50% will be forwarded to the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program of the General Assembly (the national level of PC(USA) for their work.

Thank you, again! Your generosity is very much appreciated – especially in this time of so much need at home and abroad!

Do You Believe in Life After Death?

Did you miss seeing Dr. Mary Neal on the Dr. Oz show?

Visit www.drmaryneal.com and watch the complete video of her interview. A portion of the transcript below:

Intro by Dr. Oz: Dr. Mary Neal is a surgeon who was skeptical of near death experiences, until she drowned while on vacation:

"Our last day, we all got in our boats and started paddling down the river...as I crested the drop, I thought, I'm in trouble. I was immediately engulfed by the water falls. My boat was pinned between rocks and nothing I was going to do was going to make a difference. At that point, I relaxed and gave my life to God's will and I was enveloped with this very physical sensation of being held and comforted and reassured... and I thought about my husband and my children and I was assured that they would be fine...Finally, my body broke loose from the boat. I was free and my spirit was free from my body and then I was above the river and I was immediately greeted by 10 or 12 spirits. I knew that they had come to guide me back on our journey back to God. I was simultaneously with them - yet at the same time was able to see that (my river travel companions) had pulled me back to the river bank and had started CPR, asking me to please come back...I would go back to my body and take a breath and then rejoin these other spirits that were guiding me. We were moving towards this great hall, there was jubilation and I was going home. Then there was sadness. They told me it wasn't my time to die, I still had work to do on earth and that I had to return to my body. I had Faith....but now I have knowledge."

The Mission of The Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole is

PASSING ON THE FAITH

as we GATHER to love God;

GROW to know and follow Jesus; and

GO and make a difference.

All are welcome and all are needed as we advance this significant mission for the 21st Century.
